

Right to Information System

An initiative of Government of Goa & National Informatics Centre, to meet the information requirements that are enlisted in Chapter II 4(b) of Right to Information Act 2005. This website facilitates dynamic updating of information by Government departments. Citizens can view information about Govt. departments on selecting the department. <http://egov.goa.nic.in/rtipublic>

The screenshot shows the homepage of the Government of Goa's Right to Information system. At the top, there is a header with the Government of Goa logo and the text "Right to Information A CITIZEN GATEWAY". Below this, there are navigation links for "National Portal of India", "RTI - Government of India", "Right to Information Act 2005", "Public Information Officers", "Government of Goa", "State Information Commission", and "Goa Right to Information Rules". A secondary navigation bar contains links such as "What does Right to Information Mean", "Who are the officers and what are their obligations", and "What information is available".

The main content area features a search bar with the text "Search for a department/office" and "Search on Service". Below the search bar is a "Go" button and a "Type a keyword and click search" prompt. To the left of the search bar is a map of Goa with various icons representing different departments. Below the search bar, there is a "View all Departments" section with a list of departments, each with a right-pointing arrow. The list includes: Administrative Reforms Department, Agriculture Department, Animal Husbandry & Veterinary Services Department, Archives & Archaeology Department, Art & Culture Department, Captain of Ports, Civil Supplies Department, Co-operation Department, Craftsmen Training Department, Department of Legal Metrology, and Directorate of Civil Aviation/Airport. Below the list, it says "62 Departments found. Click to view details or click => to view offices".

On the right side of the "View all Departments" section, there is a search filter with three dropdown menus: "Department", "Select Department", "Office", and "Sub-Office". There is also a "Go" button and a "Help" link. At the bottom of the page, there is a visitor counter showing "You are visitor number 584865", a disclaimer "Designed & Developed by National Informatics Centre, Goa", and a note "This site can be best viewed with 1024x768 resolution".
